My dear Sir,
I reproach
myself greatly for not having long ere this sent you another in-
- stalment ~~towards~~ ^{the} discharge of the debt.
I owe you for the exercise of your Art
upon my Physiognomy.
I am ashamed to think how long it

has been delayed,
and the only excuse I can make is the ordinary one in such matters, that when it has crossed my mind a resolve has been formed to attend to it, which has been broken because something else has intervened.

Pray excuse
my unwarrantable

neglect, and
believe me
My dear Sir
Faithfully yours
Seymour Tremere

J. Lilley Esq.
