My dear Miss Ewing:

I thank you very much for the embroidery you sent me from my mother's hands.

My cook suggests that it is just the thing for me to be laid out in!

So, with this cheerful prospect — as I always say "the lady of the house" — I have put them away.

I am glad you are with your brother and doing well. Nic good for families to keep together when they can in this world where all things drift around by a stronger law than love

R Will. - We are living here in Nipkiss and in Gloucester summers and are by your side to the "deadly" bay.
