My dear sir:

I am spending some days in the city for the purpose of securing help for the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute, and I take the liberty of enclosing this printed slip.

You will see that we are in need, just now, of money for current expenses and the increasing of our endowment fund.

I shall be very glad of any help which you can see your way to give in one or both of these directions.

Anything sent to the above address will reach me.

Yours very truly,

Booker T. Washington

My dear Army I thought perhaps you would like to have this JCB
