LITTLE HOLLAND HOUSE,
KENSINGTON, W.

Dear Sir Baldwin

It will give us great pleasure if you & Mrs. Lighter will come to tea <sup>one</sup> afternoon; on Sunday is particularly a fine afternoon for my husband & he is always glad if <sup>his old</sup> friends come to him that day - I am so glad to hear the name so delightful & a mutual friend is Lady Thackeray.

Hope you much & have the pleasure of seeing you -

See Brighton soon -

Believe me yrs. very truly

Henry S. Watts.

I should have asked you to forgive me writing for my husband he is exceptionally busy today - He has just come home from <sup>Surrey</sup> Bury where he spends the winter.
