

The WATER-COURSE
JOURNAL
W. HOWLAND ENGRA

OFFICE, CLINTON HALL, 129 AND 131 NASSAU STREET.

FOWLERS & WELLS, PUBLISHERS.

New York, Sept 26, 1850.

Dear Boston Olizor,

Please enter my Name, as a Life Sub-Scriber, for the Chronotype.

We must all die once,
but after death, comes
the resurrection, and life
eternal, of course, so put me down for always.

In every friend
S. E. Wells

D.S. The enclosed, & clipped from the Common Enquirer, of this morning, it may be of service to you.

Besides lots of the advertisements, which we are going to send you, (I pay for,) please see the enclosed, in the best place, & chq. accordingly.