May 2. 1863.

My dear Westcott,

I ought in common courtesy to have thanked you before for your contributions so readily & kindly forwarded. I have scarcely had time to read them more than once but I do not know why I should trouble you to rewrite them, as they are by the way.

I wish you could help me to procure one or two from any other eminent scholars, I have been successful in many cases, but not at present taken wide range enough. My book is open to Greek as well as Latin - if the former you doubtless have some if not many that will serve my purpose well.

Iambus (Tragic or Comic) Hexam. Styriacis or Thyricis.

with many thanks
every year

H. A. Holden
