Dear Canon Westcott,

I am sorry not to have acknowledged more promptly your kind reply to my letter. I am greatly obliged to you for your confidence, and for your readings to assist me with advice. I hope to call on you at Cambridge in the course of May.

I am particularly grateful to you for preparing the article on Oxygen in such good time. Though it is not now needed at Midsummer, it ought to be in sheet in the course of the year; and it is a ~~good~~ very great advantage to be somewhat beforehand with so important a contribution.

I trust nothing will prevent your taking the book of Wisdom. It would be a grievous disappointment to all who are interested in the Commentary, or in the subject.

Believe me

very truly yours

Henry Wace
