Mr. Barton,

Dear Sir / All your
favours are received.

But I do not think I shall assume the responsibility just yet of a life insurance
paid before next Spring.
I have been taxed with so much expense in my building improvements this year, I want a brushing spell, before I ~~take~~ ^{assume} any more burdens.

I have friends, ^{to} whom I am under many ob-ligations, who would naturally expect my patronage when I do
decide to take this step.
I will talk the matter
over with them however, and if I find I can do much better by giving the matter into your hands, I will do so.

With-Thanks, for
and your kindness
Sincerely yours
Ella Wheeler.
