

April 1, 1891

Dear Lawrence [Kittson].

Here is Savage's letter. He is a good creature & as free of leaning as of children. I am sorry he could not give you any information at the cost of "Savage's" fee.

My love to Edna. I will come to see you soon. I have been ill for several days, with neuritis & rheumatism - from night dredgers & cold.

Enclosed are a few things at Lawrence Baner, as you the remember. He is the dealer in things to Mrs Baner as might be true. Edna's decision at your age is entirely wise.

Yours truly
William Miller