Dear Mrs. Somers.

Many thanks, but my wife has not left the house since Tuesday, having been ill before that. She is extremely low & weak, and anxious to get out of town: but Dr.
Brockenbury will not let her away from him just yet. We have a good many engagements for next week, but I do not think there is a chance of her being abroad to please them. With kind regards,

Sincerely yours
Edmund Yates
