

Stucco
June 20th
61

Dear Sir,

The subject of yours of the 19th, I have held a council upon,
and the whole unanimous opinion is in favour of your dear little ones prolonging their stay till Saturday or Sunday;
thinking them that you

Joseph Clarke
1811-1862
Devon. Recter
Author

Ch

bla

68.34P.1

and Mr. King would kindly fetch them either from Wickham,
as I can not say how happy Mr. C. & my self would be to see you at home.

I am happy to say that the letter; which is much better - when I suggested, that they were to be delighted to, think the Change will do them good. Mr. C. & my Daughter (at home) - try to be kindly received.

the other being with Mr. C.
I am happy to say
it doing very well.

I remain your very truly Steph. Pattle

Joseph Clarke

1811-1862

Divine

Reveler

Author

34P.1