

what
sentences about Dr.
Sharkey has said
on the subject -

L68.450.2

mischievous in any like the degree that damp is in impure air.

Very truly
Yours
E. Giddleston

Larichlan
Cladich
Argyllshire.
June 30.

My dear Sir

I am very much obliged to you for your kind trouble & your interesting letter. I am very glad you have called our attention to each of the points named; & I will later make my comment

I shall be very glad to have any amount of proof - if you did not say how you like my book.

in return. I am obliged to lay aside 'air' for a little bit on account of other work, but hope soon to return to it.
I will get Dr. Strange's book.
I am a very cold-catching person - but keep my bed room windows open till I come to bed (or nearly so) almost every night in the year.
But I suspect damp in room air is not

69.45R.2

PS

I have read with much interest the book. I think I could find room for it in the F de's review if you like. (I am not sure, & would return it if I could not) I would,
if you allowed me, begin at the ^{confession} preface, just prefacing it with a few

HERBERT, Hon. Auberon E. W. M., D.C.L. ; journalist ; b. 18 June 1838 ; 3rd s. of 3rd E. of Carnarvon ; m. Florence, d. of 6th E.
Cowper, 1871. Educ. : Eton and Oxford. 2nd class Moderations. Lieut. 7th Hussars ; M.P. for Nottingham, 1870-73. Publications : Politician in Trouble about his Soul ; Bad Air and Bad Health ; Windfall and Waterdrift ; Sacrifice of Education to Examination (edited). Recreations : bicycling, sailing, carpentering, motoring. Address : Old House, Ringwood.