

2 Richmond Park Road,
Clifton,
Bristol.

Friday March 11
1895

My dear Howell.

Your kind note has given me great pleasure.
Will you tell the Warden that the honours - and ^{the} responsibility - he proposes to confer upon me are very great - but that if he invites me to preach on the day in question, I will obey his wish and do my best.

The prospect of a visit to Oxford at any time

is delightful to me - but to be there in June - and at new College - and with you, my dear Howell - the continuation of pleasures is almost ~~too~~ more than poor simple man deserves -

I am nearing the end of my Residence
here - only three more
weeks -

Ever yours affely

Alfred King.