

CROKER, Mrs. B. M., wife of Lieut. Col. John Croker, late Royal Scots and Royal Munster Fusiliers; one d.; novelist; o. d. of late Rev. William Sheppard, Rector of Kilgefin, Co. Roscommon. Educ.: Rockferry, Cheshire; Tours; has spent 14 years in the East in India and Burmah. Publications: Proper Pride, 1882; Pretty Miss Neville, 1883; A Bird of Passage, 1886; Diana Barrington, 1888; Two Masters, 1890; Interference, 1891; A Family Likeness, 1892; A Third Person, 1893; Mr. Jervis, 1894; Village Tales and Jungle Tragedies, 1894; The Real Lady Hilda, 1895; In the Kingdom of Kerry, 1896; Beyond the Pale, 1897; all translated into French and German and several into Norwegian; Peggy of the Bartons, 1898, Terence (dramatised in the U.S.A.); Infatuation, 1899; The Happy Valley; Angel, 1901; The Cat's Paw; Her Own People; The Spanish Necklace, 1907. Recreations: reading, travelling, and the theatre. Address: 6 Victoria Square, S.W.; 3 Radnor Cliff, West Folkestone. Clubs: Writers', Sesame, Lyceum.