

HATTON, Joseph; author and journalist; editor of The People since May 1900; b. 3 Feb. 1841; s. of late Francis Augustus Hatton, founder of Derbyshire Times. Educ.: Bowker's, Chesterfield; by private tutors. Has edited several leading journals; came to London in 1868 to conduct The Gentleman's Magazine; for years special correspondent in Europe of New York Times and Sydney Morning Herald; represented The Standard on special mission to America; edited Sunday Times; popularly known in current journalism for his Cigarette Papers published in The People and syndicate of great weekly newspapers. Publications: Novels—Clytie; Cruel London; Christopher Kenrick; Under the Great Seal; Three Recruits; Queen of Bohemia; The Old House at Sandwich; In the Lap of Fortune; The Tallants of Barton; By Order of the Czar; The Princess Mazaroff; The Banishment of Jessop Blythe; When Greek meets Greek; The Dagger and the Cross, 1897; The White King of Manoa; When Rogues Fall Out, 1899; In Male Attire, 1900, etc.: Miscellaneous Works—The New Ceylon; Irving's Impression of America; J. L. Toole's Reminiscences; Journalistic London; Old Lamps and New; Cigarette Papers; In Jest and Earnest; Clubland, etc.: Plays—successful version in America of Hawthorne's Scarlet Letter; John Needham's Double; A Daughter of France, and When Greek meets Greek; in England, Clytie; Liz; When Greek meets Greek; The Prince and the Pauper; and Jack Sheppard. Recreations: in early life an officer of Volunteer Artillery; cycling. Address: 11 Marlborough Road, N.W. Club: Garrick.

J Hatton sympathizer