

MALLOCK, W. H., s. of William Mallock (y. s. of Roger Mallock, Cockington Court) and e. d. of Ven. R. H. Froude, Archdeacon of Totnes, and sister to J. A. Froude the historian. Educ.: private tuition; Rev. W. B. Philpot, Littlehampton; Balliol Coll. Oxford. Third Class in Moderations; Second Class Final Classical Schools; Newdegate prize poem, 1872. Never adopted any profession, though at one time intended for diplomacy; has spent a considerable portion of his life since leaving Oxford in London and Devonshire; also in South of France and Italy; has travelled and resided in Cyprus and East of Europe. Publications: The New Republic; religion and philosophy—Is Life Worth Living? The New Paul and Virginia; Studies of Contemporary Superstitions; economic and social science—Social Equality; Property and Progress; Labour and the Popular Welfare, 1893; Classes and Masses, 1896; Aristocracy and Evolution, 1898; Doctrine and Doctrinal Disruption, 1900; Religion as a Credible Doctrine, 1902; The Reconstruction of Belief, 1905; novels—A Romance of the Nineteenth Century; The Old Order Changes; A Human Document; The Heart of Life; The Individualist; The Veil of the Temple, 1904; two small volumes of verses; Lucretius on Life and Death, a Poem; his main object in his political and economic writings has been to expose the fallacies of Radicalism and Socialism; his philosophic writings have aimed at showing that science taken by itself can supply man with no basis for religion. Address: Bournhill, near Exeter; Lauriston Hall, Torquay. Club: Bachelors'.