

Guildhall London 13 July

Be it Remembered that William Cooper Esq. and Richard Maddock in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Thomas Lancaster Merchant Sealer and Shipman did before We began to take the Oaths appointed to be taken by Commissioners of Bankrupt of his present Majesty's Reign in the said Act to provide the warranty to the decisions of the said Act gentlemen respecting High St

at such
Hall
acted

W. Cooper

Witness
Wm Winflow

R. Maddock

William Cooper the poet was a Commissioner of Bankrupts 1717-18

COWPER, William, poet, nephew of the Lord chancellor; b. 25 Nov. 1731; published "John Gilpin," 1783; "the Task," 1785; "Poems," 1788, 1798; "Homer," 1791; d. 25 April 1800.