

39 Fitzroy Square

Thursday. Nov 13th

My dear Paim;

I trust and hope most sincerely that you will be well enough to keep y^r: engagement tomorrow.... If you, however, don't feel up to it, just drop me a line and I'll come in and see you later in the evening, when I've had enough of the Concert.

Yours, in haste

Oliver Macdosc Brown

I am proud to say that I did succeed in carrying off y^r: spectacles — but alas! there are some victories w^h: are worse than defeats. They are so strong that they nearly wrung my eyes out when I tried to wear them the next day. You shall have them back again tomorrow evening!
