

169.24V.3
DENBIGH, 9th Earl of (cr. 1622), Rudolph Robert Basil Aloysius Augustine Feilding; Viscount Callan and Baron Feilding, 1619; Viscount and Baron Feilding, 1620; Earl of Desmond, 1622; Baron St. Liz (Eng.), 1664; Lord-in-Waiting to H.M. the Queen since 1897; Lieut.-Col. Commanding Hon. Artillery Co. since 1893; b. Downing, Holywell, Flintshire, 26 May 1859; s. of 8th Earl and Mary, d. of Robert Berkeley, Spetchley Park, Worcestershire; S. father 1892; m. Cecilia, d. of 8th Baron Clifford of Chudleigh, 1884. Roman Catholic. Conservative. Educ.: Oscott Coll. Birmingham; R.M.A. Woolwich; joined R.A. 1878; served in Egyptian Campaign, 1882 (medal and clasp for Tel-el-Kebir); posted R.H.A. 1883; served in India, 1886; promoted Capt. Jan. 1887; A.D.C. to Marquess of Londonderry, when Lord-Lieut. of Ireland resigned Army, 1888; was Parliamentary candidate for

Nov 18/99.

NEWNHAM PADDON
LUTTERWORTH.

Dear Capt Kent.

The Prince of Wales is reproving all requests for the use of his name as patron of entertainments for beneficial purposes. He is in-undated with such requests & he cannot accede to one ^{above} although he is very glad to hear that there

NEW HAMPSHIRE
LITTLETON

is going to be a concert for the benefit of the fund.

Yours very truly

Wentzel

I only got Sir Dighton Proby's letter last night & sent you a wire this morning.

stentily refused all requests for patronage in connection with Entertainments organized for the relief of the distress caused by the War, His Royal Highness feels sure you will understand his inability to break through his rule -

Wm. Pierson

Sandringham,
Norfolk.

24th November 1899.

Dear Lord Denbigh,

In continuation of my letter of the 16th Instant, I write to say that, as I felt sure would be the case, The Prince of Wales regrets very much that he cannot give his patronage to the Concert which is 2 Company of the Infantry Battalion of the Honourable

Private information should be given to the

Artillery Company are giving for the benefit of the "Widows and Orphans' Fund".

The Prince hopes the Concert will be a great success, but, as he has