

Cobbe, Frances Power (b. 1822), a well-known contributor to periodical literature, and a zealous supporter of the Women's Rights and Anti-vivisection movements.

712.3

Mrs Colbe

tell your printer to attend to my capitals - a subject of ender's newspaper? -

Mr Butler tells me she has explained to her that she considers each Essay in the volume is to be paid for at the rate of £ 10 - I secure my adding that I give her mine on this stipulation - His of course ^{shall} be my usual price & should be with

169.71P.1

propose to pay for it at this rate I must beg for directions to

Mr J. G. H.
Mrs P. Colbe

Received by
G. H. J.

I left to day ^{at your} house at Mr George Butler's request, ^{the} MS. of my Essay for his volume - She tells me that you were not one in fact which occurs Datis feel with the title to me which covers the full

"The Final Cause of Woman" meaning of the Essay.
I have thought it over Nevertheless if you think I consulted a friend on of a better title of whose judgment I rely cause be ready to give & I cannot see the it all consideration - objection in the title The proofs can be sent to me as soon as you we do, or desire a better please - It will probably name - It is too long some corrections to