

Wexford May 11th 1830

Sir. I beg leave to thank you for the Compliment you propose to pay me, by placing my Name under one of the Engravings to your work on Wexford Cathedral; I beg more suitable, my humble title, was exalted in Mr. J. B. Watkins' list, to "Curran Meridienting to this I never did, nor do I ever wish to aspire. I am generally known as follows "Rev. John Jones, M.A. St Owen's Street - Wexford" & no such, I shall be highly gratified that I have been seen in the smallest degree instrumental in determining a work, which will be fine, in every ground, to exhibit those of the same kind, and have proceeded it. That your present, as well as future labours may be successful, is the wish of Sir,

Your Obedt<sup>d</sup> Servant
John Jones

J. Whillans

John Jones
1792-1852
Poet - Author
Ma Jesus Osgood
Doubleday Malbone
Editor
Pocahontas 1857

lit.

Dear Sir,
 The Compliment you propose to
 pay me by placing my Name
 under one of the Engravings to your work on Bedford Cathedral; My name inevitable, my humble title, was omitted in Mr. S. R. Watkin's list, to "Curiosities to which I never did, nor do I mean to aspire" - I am generally known as follows "Rev. John Jones M.A. St. Owen's Street - Bedford" & as such, I shall be highly gratified that I have been receiving the smallest degree of distinction that is attending a work, which has for its purpose, to be read in the same kind, and have received it. That your present, as well as future labours,
 may be successful, is the wish of your Obedt. Servant
 J. H. Jones,

John Jones
 1792-1852
 Poet & Antiquary
 translated
 "Mabington" et

171.14R.1