

Oct 1868

My dear Fred -

Two of my pieces are at present being played in London - The Cattle Show
(Adelphi)

& the "Co-operative"
(Haymarket) perhaps

You can give me a line
somehow -

Have you written to the newspapers about
"The Slave" if not
I will - Write soon
Yours
Henson

7 1/2 Julia's place

Punch Office,
27, Boulevard Street,
Hotel de Bains ¹⁸⁶
Boulogne

Dear Russell -

I received your letter this morning
and after a study
of Bradshaw and conversation with
my father I beg to offer the following suggestions -

Leave on Monday

should occur to prevent my being there - I see nothing whatever at present - take a call with your traps and drive to

Mr. Stables
97 or 99 Champs Elyses

where you will find me -

Write and let me know your opinion of this work study your Bradshaw and do not rely on the Crawley Station master for instructions
but get all information from 3 Bridges -

I enclose slip from Bradshaws back - if you make up your mind to stay but 7 days - you cannot do better than take a 22/- ticket - we shall only stay the week no Hendon

via Dieppe (£1.16)
find out what time
the train leaves Three Bridges for it or else sleep in London the night which I think would be the better
plan. You leave
London on Monday morning and arrive
at Paris at 6.30
in the evening. I will meet your
train at the Station
or if any thing

Rejoice ye all both stout and tall
ye elders and ye youth

For our small team of some renown
Is going to find the "Truth"

Is hidden in a well tis said -

So dig thro' dust and stone And never heed the ^{old} adage of of leaving Well alone -

And when we've gained the water
And the ~~solvent~~ ^{solvent} liquor be placed

We'll have some great rejoicings
That will banish all our woes -

~~We'll give bright & cheering gold~~ ^{Let}

~~In the pure and simple liquor~~ ^{be}

~~We will quench our~~

We will ^{quench} all our burning thirst

But for one I'll take precaution and put something in it first

Harriett

July 26 1870

4112
Harry Lerner Dramatist