

TOLLEMACHE, Hon. Lionel Arthur, author; 2nd s. of 1st B. Tollemache and Georgina Best; m. Beatrix, 4th d. of 1st B. Egerton of Tatton, 1870. Educ.: Harrow; Balliol Coll. Oxford; Balliol Scholar, 1856; 1st class Classics and honorary class in Mathematics, 1860. Publications: Safe Studies and Stones of Stumbling, 1891; Benjamin Jowett, a Personal Memoir, 1895; Talks with Mr. Gladstone, 1898. Recreations: debarred by extreme near sightedness from ordinary amusements; hearing poetry and novels read aloud, and studying human nature. Address: mostly in Switzerland and at Hôtel d'Angleterre, Biarritz. Club: Athenaeum.

171.55R.4

Hotel Victoria Chas. S. Montreux
Sep 28/93

Dear Mrs Lynn Linton,

My wife hopes that you will kindly accept her vol.
of translations fr. Diderot, w^{ch} she has told her publisher to send you. I am also taking the liberty of telling my publishers to send you the very conciliatory Preface to my new edⁿ of "Stones of Stumbling". A new edition of "Safe Studies" has also come out, but to this the additions & corrections have been extremely small,

I have lately seen so kind a reference in the "Queen" to my article on the Ingadine that I am strongly tempted to send the Editor a copy of my 2^d Edition. But, as the "Queen" did not formally notice my 1st edⁿ, I hardly like to do this unless you advise me. I will at any rate tell my publishers to advertise me there.

A very friendly notice of me has lately come out in
"The Nation" (New York) as well as in some less conspicuous American journals.

Is there any chance of your making your way to Biarritz this winter?

We have heard nothing of the Steinboffs lately or of Mrs Knox for a long time.

With our kind regards

Believe me

Yrs truly

Loret A. Tollesh

Mr Lemuel Arthur Tollenach
1838

Arthur

Mr

Hôtel d'Angleterre Brantford
18/2/94

My dear M^{rs} Lynn Linton,

I take an early opportunity of expressing my gratitude to my anonymous critic in the "Queen" who has given such a very friendly notice of my vols. I am directing my publisher to advertise my vols several times in the "Queen" as I am anxious to reach the class of cultivated & lecture-attending ladies who wd be likely to take in the "Queen". I am told there is a large body of them at Torquay.

The sister of the author of "Diana Tempest" (Miss Chalmers) is with us. The beginning of it strikes me as extremely clever.
But I have not yet read far enough to form a judgment of the book as a whole. Mr Gladstone seems to think that it falls off.

I hope you liked my account of Penan & Penanism in the Rev. J. of Education. I suppose my publisher sent it you.

Believe me

Yrs very truly

Lionel A. Thorne

additions & corrections have

Marion H. Sheilman

1858 -

Editor "Magazine of Art" Author etc

Lionel Arthur Tollemache

1858 -

Author.

TOLLEMACHE, Hon. Lionel Arthur, author; 2nd s. of 1st B. Tollemache and Georgina Best; m. Beatrix, 4th d. of 1st B.
Egerton of Tatton, 1870. Educ.: Harrow; Balliol Coll. Oxford; Balliol Scholar, 1856; 1st class Classics and honorary class in Mathematics, 1860. Publications: Safe Studies and Stones of Stumbling, 1891; Benjamin Jowett, a Personal Memoir, 1895; Talks with Mr.
Gladstone, 1898. Recreations: debarred by extreme near sightedness from ordinary amusements; hearing poetry and novels read aloud, and studying human nature. Address: mostly in Switzerland and at Hôtel d'Angleterre, Biarritz.
Club: Athenaeum.

171.55.P.4