

The Lawn Manspiter -

Friday evening

Dear Sir I shall have much pleasure in joining you on Sunday next. at Knights bridge. And am obliged by your recollecting your promise
I hope to be there soon after 4 past 11 a m.

With compliments from
Dear Sir very faithfully
Mark Anthony

W. Simpson Esq.

Mark Anthony, born in 1817, studied for some time in Paris, and exhibited his first picture at the British Institution in 1840. His treatment of foliage was broad and original, and he invested his subjects with true poetic feeling. Some of his principal works are 'The Lakes of Killarney,' 'Monarch Oak,' 'Nature's Mirror,' 'Stonehenge,' 'Hesperus,' and 'A Relic of the Feudal Time.' He died in 1886.
