

BYRNE, WILLIAM, an eminent English engraver. His works are very numerous, and remarkable for the excellence of their aërial perspective. Died, 1805. 20R.6

Byrne, William, an eminent English engraver. His works are very numerous, and remarkable for the excellence of their aërial perspective. Died, 1805. 189.298.13

L100 — June 9th 1801

of Messrs Cadell & Davies one Hundred Pounds,
in account for engraving sundry Copper Plates, &c.
in Scotland from Pictures painted by Mr Geo. Walker
of Edinburgh. ————— W. Byrne

March 24. 1805 Rec^d of Mr Moltens
one pound sixteen Shillings for four nos 7 of the Antiquities of Great Britain
of Vol. 2

W Byrne

£ 1. 16. 0

W. B.

From Mr Moltens. Nov^r 1803