

Thos Davidson
- 1896 -

Davidson, T.—'Divided,' 'A Passing Thought, Romans in Britain.'

189.33v.1

NS

74. Newman St.

April. 3. 1866

My dear Sir,

Should you condescend to come and see my picture for the Academy, I should feel honoured. ~~But~~ I do not think my picture would be worth a visit from you, but as you had expressed a wish to see my painting, so I venture to ask you to come

Davison.

Artist

D. Davison a

if you have any leisure on any day, except next Friday when I regret I shall be absent from my studio,

I do not issue out invitations to view my picture like all the known artists, but I am sure you will not take mine as a presumption or vanity, but as a desire to hear whether I make any advancement or my capability worth noticing.

I hope Mrs Bicknell is completely recovered and perfectly well.

With kind regards,

I am, dear Sir,

yours truly,

Thos Davidson

W. Bicknell Esq

a very humble artist