

ROTTINGDEAN,

NE BRIGHTON.

March 1: 1899

Dearest Barbara,

I am so very glad to have the Holly & prints of Mr. Morris & Sir Edward in the garden, and thank you for them so warmly. Are you not pleased with it yourself?

I am so unhappy about my dear Rudyard's illness that you will forgive me if I say nothing more than love & thanks - wait you?

always your affec<sup>t</sup>

G. Beuve-Jones.