

“John
I’m ashamed of you!”

Mary M Luntton

Drawn by Harry Furness

POST CARD

THIS SPACE MAY BE USED FOR PRINTED OR WRITTEN MATTER

THE ADDRESS ONLY TO BE WRITTEN HERE

Affix
Halfpenny
Stamp

Mary St. Quintin

189.54R.5

JOHN HONE,
MARY ST. QUINTIN.

16A, LANCASTER STREET,
HYDE PARK, W. . . .

April 26. 1913

Dear Mr. Ross
On Thursday I expect to be at the Cinema St. Margaret's Studio - Instructions between 3-4 o'clock.

If you are disengaged about 4 o'clock in that direction perhaps you would call there & we could have a few minutes talk.
Time is very important business there so I cannot promise to be able to see you the exact time you may call but if you will just ask for me - Mr. Furniss's Studio* (my afternoon app' is with him) - I will, if I cannot see you just then send word ^{at the door}

Make no statement as to the sketch - if I introduce you to Mr. Furniss please give me the word whether you wish me to state you are author - or - only acting for the author. Yrs sincerely
Mary St. Quintin.

Harry Furniss the famous "Funch" artist