

8, VICTORIA SQUARE,
CLIFTON,
BRISTOL.

Martin's House
Temple -
May 16 - 1900.

My dear Howell.

I fear it cannot be.
Under any circumstances
I do not leave the Temple Church on any great Festival unless it be a command from my Sovereign, or one of the Universities! And it so happens that this year I am select Preacher at Cambridge, on Trinity Sunday, a week later.
I know you will understand

SHADOCK ABBOTT
LONDON
1875 this, being yourself the son of a Benchet of one Hon: Society. By the way your father looked in upon us the other afternoon, and I thought how looking remarkably well.

I am on the Council of the Cambridge House - but that would not have made me the less willing to help the Sister Enterprise.

Why did you not come in, with your 4 1/2 in your hands - that I might have put ~~the~~ my whole

Balance at Child's at your disposal?

Ever your affec^tly
Alfred Angell.

Yes, I read your Times article with great interest.
Bruce Richmond had told me it was coming. More power to you (journalistic) Elbow.