Sir

I shall have much pleasure in having the honour of accepting the invitation of the Council of the Royal Medical College to their Dinner on Wednesday 22nd inst.
I have only to venture to beg, in accepting the invitation

38 UPPER BROOK STREET

That you will not refuse a speech upon me on the occasion -

I am in waiting upon the Prince of Wales during this month, and it is probable that I may have to attend him specially on the 22nd - but on this point I am not certain -

Yours
Genuinely

Yours faithfully

Hamilton
