Downing Street
May 1879.

Dear Sir,

In apprising you of my intention of bringing the Budget and the Financial situation of the Country, under the consideration of the House immediately after the recess, I must add that it is very desirable that there should be as full

Besley

an attendance of my own Funds as possible, and I have therefore taken the liberty of requesting your presence in the House upon that occasion.

I am always
Dear Sir

Your very obedient servant,

N. Vansittart

P.S. I expect that I shall be able to bring forward my Financial Statement on Monday - June 7.
