Confidential, it will not be known to Mr. Bidder that any doubt existed on my mind respecting him. My Duty is to find out the best Tutor & I shall highly appreciate your judgment & assistance in regard of the Selection which has given me much trouble. (Monday) Edwin set out by the seven o'clock coach this morning with Lord & Missions, so that he will have arrived in time for School.

Enclosed a Draft

Dear Sir
40 Berkeley Square
2<sup>d</sup> June 1834.

Edwin is to return to Ston by the early coach in the morning. I have considered & also enquired respecting Mr. Bidder who was recommended by you to be his Tutor after the 10 days & from what I have been informed, I believe that he & Mr. Chapman stand among the highest of the Masters at Ston, & if any thing, Mr. C. is the first for Discipline & Regularity.

in his House for attention to & getting on of his Boys, & as a proof of their Merits, the first second for the Newcutts Cholassick
this year were his pupils.
Perhaps however his House may be full, & if so, I request you to arrange with Mr Milder Senr. to take Edwin under his care after the Holidays.
I am sure you will explain to Mr or Mrs. how anxious we feel about our son in every way, & how important his, upon this unfortunate change, that he should at once fall at home in his new Tutor's House, & fall in readily with the new system, to which the change is opposed both. I am well acquainted with Mr Chapman but those Parents to whom I have of course spoken, seem to give him a decided preference for the qualities which I have mentioned. As this my wish is quite correct.
