

Canterbury, Charles Manners Sutton, Viscount (b. 1780, d. 1845), Speaker of the House of Commons (1817-1835), a post which he held with distinction and success.

194.59 v.4

This is the sixth time that the present Speaker, the Right Hon. Manners Sutton, son of the late Archbishop of Canterbury, has been appointed to fill the chair. The custom is that the Speaker should have a new service of plate with each new Parliament; so that the present Speaker will possess six official services of plate. He has long been celebrated for the taste and splendour of his Parliamentary dinners;
this will now be more splendid than ever. 194.608.1 1831.

<sup>Charles</sup> Manners Sutton - Speaker of the house of Commons
born. 1780. Viscount Canterbury

Dear friend

July 23
1825

Belcher Sir

I have ordered the Depots according to your desire - I am glad you are enjoying the beauties of the country, and at the same anticipating the goodness of the harvest; upon which greatly depends our being able to deal with the Corn question if it comes in any year. -

Yours By Despatch

Very respectfully & sincerely

C. Manners Sutton
