

Faint, illegible handwriting, possibly a signature or name.

70v.1

My dear Jewell,

It was very kind of you to get me the particulars. I am much obliged & hope soon to thank you in person

Y^r most truly

H. d. Burley

Saturday.

My dear Sa

Pray write to me
Paris. Bestest love
yours faithfully
T. Bulmer

Oct. 26.

Done

R. H. L. E. Bulwer
to William Brewster
'See Mr. Bulwer'

1201-1110

Diploma

Post

194.71R.4

14th July 1843

Sir,

I feel exceedingly obliged by your kind and flattering remembrance.

Very yours,

Henry Lytton Bulwer

48, Rue de la Harpe

194.712.2

A. Dubois

*Mr. Ward,
Hôtel du Cheval Blanc, Rue Favart Place des Foyatiers.*

BULWER, Sir Henry Lytton Earle, bool'-wer, a privy counsellor, a diplomatist, and an author. He has been connected with diplomatic missions to Berlin, Vienna, the Hague, Paris, Brussels, Constantinople, and in 1843 was despatched to Madrid as envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary. In 1848 he was dismissed from the Spanish court, on account of his opposition to the arbitrary conduct of the government of that country, but he was supported by his own government, and Spain was, for two years, without a British representative at her court. In 1849 he was appointed minister plenipotentiary to the United States, and in 1852 became envoy extraordinary to Tuscany. In 1851 he was made Knight Grand Cross of the order of the Bath, and, in 1857, succeeded Lord Stratford de Redcliffe as ambassador at Constantinople, a post he retained until 1866. His chief works are, "France, Social and Literary," and "The Monarchy of the Middle Classes." B. 1804; D. 1872.