Dear Sir

The Duke of Newcastle will take an opportunity of speaking to the Prince of Wales before he leaves England
as to the probability of his falling in with

Mr. Simpson.

I am very sorry
that his sketches
have been detained so long. I will have them returned to you as early as possible.

I am
Yours faithfully
G. D. Eastman.

My Dear Sir,
I have only just time to acknowledge your last letter wherein you acknowledge the £150 I wrote on a note received in one I addressed to the Duke - telling you, we had passed Egypt about the same time as the Prince and I would go to meet R. H. P. Hyland on equal terms - You will find Bradford was the Prince's agent to Philadelphia at that time - they have ^{been} on the 6th -
I have taken all Bradford will do -

Respectfully

Yours

W. L. G.
