

Caldwell
11 letters

24 Holland St,
Kensington,

377

11 March 1883

Dear Carr,

381

If I can be any help to you I shall be happy.

I am very busy indeed at present & doubt see much time in the immediate future which ^{will be} ~~is~~ unoccupied. Therefore

I can only promise to do something for you as soon as I find it possible — in about 2 months from this perhaps I may be able to get at it.

As to subject —

I'm cast about for that,
& if I am not successful in finding anything I will ask you & be grateful for your assistance. Meantime, if you have something which you yearn to suggest to me,
let me have it.

J. D. Cooper
desires to be favorably considered by you as an exponer.
If possible, let him be so & seize promontory
R. Ardoot.

J. Augustus Carr by,
The English Illustrated Magazine.

March 1883

R Caldwell
