

24, HOLLAND STREET,
KENSINGTON,
W.

25 June 1874

Dear Sir,

I enclose herewith a copy of the note of the 23rd. — I do not consider myself important enough to be celebrated in the way you propose; but, if you think that commenting on my modest career will be likely to interest or amuse the public, & that at the same time an appearance of ostentation on my part can be avoided, I shall

6525

Faint handwritten notes, possibly "The ..."

1874

54 HOLLAND STREET
KENSINGTON

be happy to see you here.

Unfortunately I am going down on Monday afternoon to the country - near Farnham (where I chiefly live)
- to make my hay, which will keep me out of town for a week at least.

I shall be here until 1.30 on Monday - & altho' country being custom, I shall be be glad to see you before that hour if that day happens to be most convenient to you.

Yours truly
Ralph Arden

10
T. Hanson Lewis