Dear Mr. Yates

I had only heard

verbally of the letter

you have sent me.

It is incredible. ^{But} ~~that~~ the older one grows the

Sir W. V. Mercourt.

More one learns that human nature is inscrutable

yours sincerely

Dear Mr Yates

In common with all Mr. Escott's friends, I deeply regret to learn from your note such a bad account of his health.

I shall be very glad to sign the memorial to Mr. Gladstone, although Viscount Wolsley.

I do not imagine that any name to it will increase the chances of success
 very faithfully yours
 Wolsley

Edmond Yates Esq
 to me.
