

MASTER'S HOUSE,
TEMPLE. E. C.

May 30. 1901.

My dear Howell.

Your father has sent me the joyful intelligence, and I am sure you know what pleasure it has given me, & how heartily I wish you joy - I humbly hope that Miss Vernon Harcourt will, for your sake, admit me into the circle of her friends, & that my old age may be thus further enriched -

Ever yours affectionately

Alfred Cinget.

Miss Harcourt is, I assume, a cousin of your friend, Bruce Richmond.
