Dear Sir

Absence from home & books explain (though I doubt if it proper excuse)
the delay in thanking you for your very kind & courteous
letter of May 27.
with

with regard to the Coleridge letter -
I am very much obliged to you.

I am busy just
now passing thro'
the press my one -
volume Coleridge
Poems & Dram. Works
for Macmillan's
Green series. It will

will be out about
October I fancy.

With renewed
thanks remain
Yours much obliged
J. P. Ker (as you like)

Wm. G. Scribner & Co.

I suppose I may take it for granted that the other Coleridge letter is correct & printed?
