

Gartlet,
Watford,
Herts.

June 11. 1882

Dear Canon Westcott,

Many thanks for your note, which I have shown to Lewis.

He has not, nor have I, solved the difficulty. Indeed, under the conditions, I do not think it is capable of solution. But your proposal would minimise the mischief. I doubt, however, if

Sir A Charles Judge

198 180

Deary of Liches

The Commission would confer on the defendants an option of proceeding to either the Peruvian a Final Court without also giving the promoters a like option.

And to allow the promoters, none of whose civil rights are affected to get to the Final Court is what I should like to present.

Very sincerely yours

Arthur Charles