

Sir Alexander
Coakburn
Sart Chief
Justices

Attorney General
1851-52
52-56

191
172
6. 1567

My dear Mr. Hammond

You were good enough to tell me
to fit a day at the beginning of Decr
for coming to you for another day's shooting I find that I shall be a [redacted] went from [redacted] a day on Monday the 9th of Dec. If that sha suit you, I will go down to Cambridge,

to our friend Fielding,
by the mail train
on Sunday night, &
come over to you on Monday morning.

If from any cause

Whatever, the day I have named should be inconvenient to you, pray
do not scruple to say so.

Hoping you are well
I with best regards
to your son

Believe me

Ever truly yours

R. E. Lockman