

1 Linnæus Square W

15th November 1888.

My dear Provost.

If we have had another year you will know me with another invitation I shall hope to accept with pleasure. This year

I am unfortunately closely engaged on the 6th in a manner which I cannot avoid & I am therefore with real regret - obliged to forego your kind hospitably. I regret to see the want of the corner house so much improved upon the table when I was at them for an evening a week ago.

Yours always most truly Coleridge

Judge in Office
Sir J. Coleridge
Lord Chief Justice - England 1820-94