

Green, Highgate

My dear Sir

I have sent the Certificate to Cambridge, and as I receive the answer I will content myself by so far anticipating the expression of my feelings as to assure you, that it would not be easy for a man the most improper to make the sense of another's persevering and constant kindness to feel more affectionately grateful, than for your fortitude and persistency in friendly services does you obliged

S. T. Coleridge

16 Feb 7 1828.

Coleridge

to G. S. Taylor

368