July 19th 1850

My dear Sir. The verses you have been good enough to send me are very pretty, and are full of natural sentiment, very pleasantly expressed. I hope to find a place for them in one of my Mag^s but cannot promise them

very early insertion.

Perhaps this note
will serve your purpose as an autograph - but otherwise I should be happy to write my name on a separate
slip of paper.

I remain
Yours faithful Servt.
