

Kenel Manor House
Kensal Road, London.
Nov 20th 1852.

My dear Sir. Your letter to my cousin, Mr Francis Livensatt, has been forwarded to me.

There will be an opening for a continuous story in the New Monthly, on the completion of "Wester Tanset"; and if Spindrum's romance (as I have little doubt it will be) available, I shall be delighted to use it in that Magazine as a successor to the Tale I have substituted.

After its publication in the New Monthly, your Tale will be more marketable than before to one of the Shilling Libraries.

I have to thank you for several very clever Tales, all of which are in type, and only waiting an opening for appearance.

I shall be glad if you will send up the dr. of your Remuneration. It can either be directed to my private residence, or to me to be care of Messrs Chapman & Hall.

Very faithfully yours

W. Harrison Ainsworth
