

To Leigh Hunt - circa 1833

Alfred de Vigny
Hamm Road.
Englnd

My dear Hunt. I am infinitely obliged by your promise to send me a little poem for the next N. M. M. and should anxiously await its arrival.
Your name will be a grace to my pages. -

But you must not suppose I ask this favour without intending remembrance - however inadequate for it. For verse I suppose unworthy to pay us at the rate of a guinea and a half per page - but to exceed 4 pages. For proof at the rate of 1 guinea per page - but to exceed 6 or 8 ^{pages} at the outside. - Whence therefore it into you to write. I shall be glad to receive you in those terms. dear Sir Believe me Dear Sir
