

appear in the very next issue of your paper. The one this week has I hope pleased your readers. How appropriate to the King's Bench that the column should end with a verse by one of the Coleridges Yours sincerely
Darling

TELEGRAMS, WEST MONKTON, STATION TAUNTON.

MARLOWS,
WEST MONKTON,
TAUNTON.

29th Dec<sup>r</sup>/24

Dear Mr. Rees

I hope you may like the enclosed article - but if not please return it to me at 81 Albert Hall Mansions - marked not to be forwarded.

You may have noticed in the Times lately some references to Constable R.A. in connexion with a scheme to turn Flatford Mill - wh. was his father's - into a home for landscape painters - On

I have not touched at all.

But I have some advantages in writing about Constable & the places he painted - as my home when I was young was Lougham Hall, where my father died.

Personally I should prefer that this article should not