

for him to do or some one for him to
see. He has done
some work for your brother and is at some more which he has ordered. He will tell you himself what he expects to and what he is capable of doing.

Sincerely yours
Richard Harding Davis.

Oct 22nd / 1892

150

My Dear Mrs. Gildee,

This will introduce
to you my brother,
Charles Belmont Davis,
who is tired of daily newspaper work and is anxious to get into something different. I send him to you with the idea that you are more in touch with many different kinds of publishers and publications than anyone else and that you can suggest something