

by Finder, is that which I deem most suitable for your Collection, but I send another portrait by Count & Orsay lithographed by Lane, which you may perhaps think worth placing in your portfolio.

With all good wishes

Believe me

My dear Sir

very faithfully yours

W Harris an answer to

J. Arundel Terrace, Kemp Town, Brighton.

Feb 20. 1862.

My dear Sir. Many years have elapsed - in fact, the whole active part of my life - since I had the pleasure of seeing you, but I well remember you as a boy, and am very glad to hear from you, as it brings back recollections of early and happy days, when I was under the care of your excellent Father, to whom I owe

Loose Item

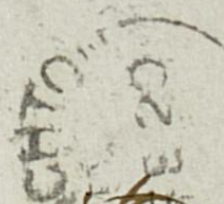

1/0

The Rev. J. Finch Smith

Aldridge Rectory,
near Walsall,

Warrington

Staffordshire

much, and for whom - as you rightly imagine, - I have ever entertained the highest personal regards.

For the old School, at which I was educated, I feel the strongest attachment, and nothing would gratify me more than to have my name connected with it in any way.

With these feelings you may be quite sure that I have great pleasure in sending you my portrait to be added to the collection which you design to present to the School - the fitted receptacle, I quite agree with you - for them.

The portrait, painted by Macaire, and engraved